

Semesterticket Refund/ Exam Scholarship

Semesterticket refund

Reimbursement of the contribution share for the semester ticket from the hardship fund.

Exam scholarship for international students

for students of HAW, TUHH, HfbK, HfMT and HCU

International students who are not entitled to BAföG can receive support for the completion of their studies from state funds. However, there is no legal entitlement to this funding.

Requirements

You must complete your studies no later than two semesters after submitting your application and be able to demonstrate a level of performance that corresponds to the current semester. In addition, you must be needy, i.e. you must not receive any allowance from your parents or be financially secure in some other way.

Counselling Centre Accommodation - BeWo

We advise

- Students and prospective students
- Student interns and guests at Hamburg universities
- Trainees from companies based in Hamburg

The Counselling Centre Accommodation is the point of contact for questions concerning housing in Hamburg for students.

All-inclusive-rent from approx. 280 to 450 €/month

The rent already includes:

- furnished rooms
- Heating, water, electricity, internet and cable connection facility
- Common areas like bar, library, fitness rooms and much more
- Support by welcome tutors

In addition to students, trainees from companies based in Hamburg are also eligible for housing. An application for a room is possible at any time via our online form. There are long waiting times for 1-room-apartments. Applying for „rooms“ and „all student residences“ increases the chances of receiving a room offer as quickly as possible.

Online application:

New in Hamburg as a student intern or guest at a Hamburg university?

In two student residences there are some rooms available for short-term rent from 1 to 6 months.

Welcome Tutor Programme for international students:

A team of tutors helps international students get off to a good start in Hamburg, supports them in integrating into the residential complexes and promotes the dialogue between international and German students. The tutors help with questions about housing, studying and jobs, language problems and administrative matters.
